Breakfast at the Hotel

Begin your day with a delicious breakfast at the hotel before setting out on a day of adventure in Buenos Aires.

Privately Guided City Tour

Take in the iconic sights of the marvelous city of Buenos Aires on this fascinating tour. You'll visit the Plaza de Mayo, the city's oldest public square and home to the Casa Rosada, the seat of the national government, and site of the balcony where Eva "Evita" Perón—the beloved First Lady of Argentina—would stand and address the crowds. Also in the plaza is the famed Metropolitan Cathedral where Pope Francis conducted Mass for 20 years. Your tour will also take you to Recoleta Cemetery, the final resting place for some of Argentina's most celebrated sons and daughters. The tour will also stop by La Boca, a brightly colored, working-class neighborhood with a cluster of vibrant attractions.

Lunch at El Gran Paraiso in La Boca

Feast on an array of local favorites amid the vibrancy and colors of this historic La Boca restaurant whose courtyard features a tenement that dates back to 1890.

Coach Tour Through San Telmo En Route to La Ventana

Complimentary Pre-Night Stay with Your Booking
info@ezdisez.com 877-ezdisez (877-393-4739) www.ezdisez.com

As you make your way to La Ventana, check out the sights of San Telmo, a hip, artsy neighborhood with a bohemian vibe. Lined with lively steakhouses, antique dealers, pop-up art galleries and late-night bars, this neighborhood is also the location for an array of street performers. Be sure to check out the colorful street murals throughout the area.

★ Private Tango Demonstration & Class at La Ventana

No trip to Argentina would be complete without experiencing Tango, the once controversial dance that became a world-wide sensation. See the dance performed by true Tango masters before you take to the dance floor and show off your moves in a private Tango class. ¡Olé!

Dinner & Evening on Your Own in Buenos Aires

Explore the streets of this magnificent city with all it has to offer. Peruse the shops, galleries and lovely cafés that line the streets. Once you work up an appetite, try one of the many local restaurants that serve up the renowned Argentine cuisine. You can discover a restaurant on your own, or ask your Adventure Guides to recommend one of their favorites.

Breakfast at the Hotel

Begin your day with a delicious breakfast at the hotel before setting out on an adventure-filled day.

Visit San Antonio de Areco: Historic Café & Las Lilas de Areco Museum

After a scenic ride taking in the beauty of the pampas grasslands region, enjoy the morning exploring San Antonio de Areco in Buenos Aires Province. Visit an historic café for a cup of coffee before spending some time exploring Las Lilas de Areco Museum, a lovely courtyard museum that displays the works of Florencio Molina Campos, renowned artist who did consulting work for the Walt Disney Studios in the 1940s and 1950s—and became a personal friend of Walt Disney. In fact, you may even find some Disney treasures on display.

Cultural Experience at Estancia El Ombú de Areco

Celebrate the history of the gaucho, an Argentine cowboy, at this authentic, family-owned estancia

Complimentary Pre-Night Stay with Your Booking

—a cattle and horse ranch—starting with a traditional welcome that includes drinks and empanadas, and then spending the day participating in engaging activities, including horseback riding and carriage rides.

Argentine Barbeque

Continue your “gaúcho for a day” journey at a mouth-watering barbeque lunch.

Folkloric Music & Dance Performance

Experience the joy and tradition of Argentina as gaúchos perform some of the region’s music and dance. They’ll even teach you a few dances so you can join in the fun.

On Your Own Time at the Estancia

Spend the afternoon exploring the picturesque grounds of the estancia, play a rousing game of fútbol (soccer), take a dip in the pool, or just relax and enjoy the stunning surroundings.

Private Farewell Dinner at Hotel

Say “adiós” to the beautiful city of Buenos Aires as you and your fellow Adventurers enjoy a farewell dinner at your hotel before you continue your journey on the Adventures by Disney Antarctica & Patagonia Expedition Cruise.
