DUBLIN

Activities Highlights:

EPIC The Irish Emigration Museum, Privately Guided Tour of the Teeling Whiskey Distillery, Irish Pub Lunch & Musical Experience

 Breakfast and Lunch

Included

 The Westin Dublin

Breakfast at the Hotel

Begin your day with a delightful breakfast at the hotel before your adventure begins in Dublin.

Private Visit to EPIC The Irish Emigration Museum

Enjoy a private visit to the world's first fully digital museum dedicated to the story of Ireland's people and how they have influenced and changed the world. Following your visit, you'll be treated to scones and tea at a local bakery.

Teeling Whiskey Distillery Tour & Tasting

Experience the complete whiskey making process with a Teeling Ambassador. For interested adults, a sampling of 3 award-winning Teeling whiskeys paired with delicious Irish chocolate is included. A non-alcoholic beverage will be offered to non-whiskey drinkers. Children will receive a non-alcoholic beverage as well as some chocolate.

Private Lunch and Irish Music at a Local Pub

Take part in a true Irish rite of passage—a visit to a local pub! You'll enjoy a traditional Irish meal accompanied by local musicians who will regale you with tunes that'll have you singing along.

Late Afternoon On Your Own in Dublin

Spend the afternoon exploring historic Dublin. Shop, visit the amazing museums and walk along the cobblestone streets of the Temple Bar neighborhood.

Dinner On Your Own in Dublin

Savor a dinner on your own at one of Dublin's world-class restaurants. Your Adventure Guides will be happy to help you find the ideal place that fits your family's needs!

DUBLIN AND BELFAST

Activities Highlights:

Tracey's Farmhouse Kitchen, Belfast Tour, Titanic Belfast Experience

 Breakfast, Lunch and
Dinner Included

 Culloden Estate and Spa

Breakfast at the Hotel

Begin your day with a delightful breakfast at the hotel before starting your journey to Belfast.

Tracey's Farmhouse Kitchen

Experience true Irish authenticity on a visit to this 17th-century farmhouse where Tracey will demonstrate the traditional method of making soda and potato breads on individual griddles. Then, you'll roll up your sleeves and make your own breads to enjoy.

Private Lunch at Tracey's Farmhouse Kitchen

After you've worked up an appetite making bread, you'll dig into a delicious farm-style lunch. And of course, your warm, home-made breads and other sweet treats made by Tracey!

Belfast Tour

Take a privately guided drive around the wonderful city of Belfast with several brief photo stops. The tour includes historic sights throughout the city, including City Hall, Queens University, Ulster Hall, the Botanical Garden and the wall murals of Falls Road and Shankill Road.

Titanic Belfast Experience

See the world-famous story as you've never seen it before—through the eyes of the people that built the “unsinkable” ship. Throughout the immersive self-guided Titanic Experience, you will uncover the sights, sounds, smells and stories of the ship, as well as the people and city that made her. You'll journey through boomtown Belfast and the shipyard where the liners were built, to the launch, fit out and maiden voyage, before discovering more about the sinking, aftermath and Titanic's final resting place.

Check-in at Hotel

Bask in the elegance and palatial surroundings of Culloden Estate and Spa, Northern Ireland's most prestigious luxury five-star hotel—and your home for the next 2 nights. Located atop Holywood Hills, this magnificent 12-acre estate, gardens and woodlands was built for the Bishops of Down, but fit for a king.

Adult Dinner at Leisure at Hotel

Dine in the relaxed and welcoming atmosphere of The Cultra Inn, a traditional Irish Pub and Bistro at the hotel.

Junior Adventurer Dinner and Lawn Games at Hotel

While the adults enjoy their dinner, Junior Adventurers will dine with the Adventure Guides in a private location at the hotel. Following dinner, Junior Adventurers will have fun and games on the lawn at the hotel.

ANTRIM COAST

Activities Highlights:

Culloden Estate and Spa

Giant's Causeway Exploration, Bushmills Village

Breakfast at the Hotel

Fuel up with a full breakfast at your leisure before heading out for a fun day in Belfast and along the Antrim Coast.

Journey Along the Antrim Coast

Enjoy a morning driving along the scenic Antrim Coast, designated as an Area of Outstanding Beauty in 1988. Be awed at the stunning views across the sea as you hear stories about the legends and life in the local seaside villages.

Giant's Causeway Exploration

Although the "official" explanation is that the 40,000 interlocking basalt columns that make up Giant's Causeway was formed by volcanic fissure eruptions, don't rule out that it was formed by Finn McCool, a giant who threw the stones so he could cross the water to fight another giant. Both explanations will be given on your visit, so you can decide which is correct.

Lunch at Bushmills Inn

Enjoy a delicious lunch at this quaint boutique hotel situated on Northern Ireland's Causeway Coast. Originally a coaching inn in the 1600s, Bushmills Inn is steeped in Irish history.

On Your Own in Bushmills Village

Spend time after lunch exploring this small village on the Causeway Coast. Step back in time as you walk along Main Street, a narrow, shop- and historic house-lined street that cuts through the Town Centre.

Dinner On Your Own in Belfast

Upon return from the coast, you'll be able to relax over a dinner on your own in Belfast or at the hotel. Your Adventure Guides will be happy to recommend some of their favorite restaurants or discover a new favorite of your own.

BELFAST, GLASGOW AND EDINBURGH

Activities Highlights:

Ferry to Cairnryan, The National Piping Centre in Glasgow

Breakfast, Lunch and
Dinner Included

InterContinental
Edinburgh The George

Ferry to Cairnryan with Breakfast

Start your day bright and early as you ferry from Belfast to Cairnryan, Scotland. While on board, you'll enjoy breakfast to help fuel you up for the adventure-filled day ahead.

The National Piping Centre in Glasgow

Take a deep breath and prepare to learn about—and play—the bagpipes. Walk through the informative museum that traces the history of the national instrument of Scotland. Then, put your lungs to the test as you try your hand at making some beautiful music that harkens back centuries of Scottish history.

Private Lunch at Piper's Tryst

Catch your breath from your bagpipe lesson and dine on a delicious lunch featuring classic Scottish dishes with a modern twist.

Check-in at Hotel

Following your arrival in Edinburgh, your Adventure Guides will check you in to your hotel and home for the next 3 nights, the InterContinental Edinburgh The George. Enjoy exploring this grand hotel which was established in 1881 and is made up of a collection of fine Georgian townhouses nestled in the city of Edinburgh, a UNESCO World Heritage area.

Dinner in Edinburgh

Make your way through the exciting bustle of the city streets and enjoy seasonal Scottish cuisine in the heart of Edinburgh.

Start your adventure-filled day with a tasty breakfast.

Royal Yacht Britannia

Revel in a Red Carpet Welcome and private visit of the former royal yacht of the British monarch, Queen Elizabeth II. Once on board, you'll get behind-the-ropes access to areas that include the State Drawing Room—where the Royal Family would entertain dignitaries and heads of state—and the Admiral's Cabin and Dining Room. You'll also enjoy a lovely reception with fresh scones and coffee on the Royal Deck Tea Room and discover what life was like on board Her Majesty's floating Royal residence.

The Palace of Holyroodhouse

Explore the royal palace, which is the Queen of England's official residence in Edinburgh, on a privately guided tour. Over the centuries, great events at Holyroodhouse have shaped the fates of England, Scotland and France. See important details

The Royal Mile and the Statue of Greyfriars Bobby

En route to Edinburgh Castle, make a stop at the Statue of Greyfriars Bobby, the renowned Skye Terrier. According to legend, this adorable pooch spent 14 years guarding the grave of his owner, until his death. The story of Greyfriars Bobby was so remarkable that Walt Disney Productions turned it into a movie in 1961!

Lunch On Your Own

Take a break from your walking tour and dine with your friends and family at one of the many restaurant options nearby. Ask your Adventure Guides for recommendations for their favorite spots.

Edinburgh Castle Tour

Continue your adventure with a privately guided tour of Edinburgh Castle where you'll take in the resplendent views of the city and explore the castle's massive fortifications. Revel in the remarkable tales of royal intrigue surrounding the wars for Scottish independence told by your local expert.

Evening in Edinburgh and Dinner On Your Own

Edinburgh is rich in history and eye-catching architecture. Stroll the Royal Mile, the commercial center of Old Town, and hear the lilting melody of the Scottish brogue in passing conversations. You're sure to fall in love with this charming city as you explore the shops, restaurants and historic buildings of Lawnmarket and High Street. Ask your Adventure Guides to recommend the perfect place to have a memorable dinner.
